

2023 CBGL Outstanding Research Publication Award Guidelines

Purpose:

The 2023 Outstanding Research Publication award aims to recognise, reward and promote research excellence.

Nature of the award:

One award of $3,000 will be made under this scheme. The award will be deposited into a university account and must be used by the award winner for research or professional development purposes. In the case of multiple CBGL authors, the award of $3000 will be divided amongst the CBGL authors. Awarded funds will be available for 12 months.

Eligibility for nomination:

- Teaching & Research or Research-only academic staff member(s) at level A-D of the College of Business, Government and Law;
- Employed in a continuing, contract or fixed term role for a period of at least 12 months.

Award winners will not be eligible for re-nomination for this award for 2 years.

Eligible Activities/Outputs:

To be eligible for award under this scheme the publications must:

- Be either:
 - a journal article published in an A*/Top 10% or A/Q1 journal, as determined by one of the Scimago Journal Rank, Australian Business Deans Council (ABDC) journal ranking list, or CBGL Law Journal list;
 - or an authored research book published by a CBGL preferred publisher, determined by the CBGL Book Publishers List 2022 (for a copy of this list email cbgl.research@flinders.edu.au).
- Have been published online or in print in 2023.
- Be aligned with the College mission statement of,

We embrace innovative knowledge and practice to tackle the challenges of our time, with a strategic focus on technology, health and social impact.

or one of the College Research Centres/Institute(s).

Applications

Applications must be made on the Nomination Form in the space provided. Up to 2 pages of supporting documentation may be added. No additional documentation will be considered.

Applications should be submitted to the CBGL Research Support Team (cbgl.research@flinders.edu.au).

Assessment of Applications

A Selection Committee will be appointed by the Dean (Research). The Selection Committee's recommendations will be submitted to the Vice President and Executive Dean for approval.

Note:

- All applications will be assessed relative to opportunity.
- Extra weighting given to collaborative research.