

T&R: Level E

Teaching

- Provides leadership and fosters excellence in teaching/scholarship of teaching.
- Makes original, innovative and distinguished contributions to scholarship and teaching.
- Provides sustained leadership to the discipline.

Skill Base & Qualifications

- Completion of a PhD or EdD or equivalent qualification
- Recognition of academic standing at a national or international level in the discipline area.
- Recognition of academic standing as an eminent authority in the discipline area.
- Distinction and the national (and where appropriate) international level.

Research and/or Creative Activity

- Provides leadership at the national and/or international level in his or her discipline and fosters excellence through original, innovative and distinguished contributions to research and/or creative activity.
- Makes a contribution to the University's research agenda commensurate with her/his standing in the profession and as a Professor of the University.

University, Professional & Community Service

- Provides leadership and fosters excellence in administration and management within School, Faculty and University.
- Makes a significant contribution to the discipline and/or profession within a relevant external professional domain and within a wider community context at local, national and international level, which draws upon the staff member's University-related professional profile and which enhance the reputation, strategic engagement and/or income of the University.

TS: Level E

Teaching

- Provides leadership and fosters excellence in teaching/scholarship of teaching.

- Makes original, innovative and distinguished contributions to scholarship and teaching.

- Provides sustained leadership to the discipline.

Skill Base & Qualifications

- Completion of a PhD or EdD or equivalent qualification (TS/A).
- Doctorate or equivalent clinical/professional experience and standing (TS/CP)

University, Professional & Community Service

- Provides leadership and fosters excellence in administration and management within School, Faculty and University.

- Makes a significant contribution to the discipline and/or profession within a relevant external professional domain and within a wider community context at local, national and international level.

RO: Level E

Research and/or Creative Activity

- Provides leadership at the national and/or international level in his or her discipline and fosters excellence through original, innovative and distinguished contributions to research and/or creative activity.

- Makes a contribution to the University's research agenda commensurate with her/his standing in the profession and as a Professor of the University.

Skill Base & Qualifications

- Completion of a PhD or EdD or equivalent qualification
- Recognition of academic standing at a national or international level in the discipline area.
- Recognition of academic standing as an eminent authority in the discipline area.
- Distinction and the national (and where appropriate) international level.

University, Professional & Community Service

- Provides leadership and fosters excellence in administration and management within School, Faculty and University.
- Makes a significant contribution to the discipline and/or profession within a relevant external professional domain and within a wider community context at local, national and international level, which draws upon the staff member's University-related professional profile and which enhance the reputation, strategic engagement and/or income of the University.

