Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan (PEEP)

PEEP or Personal Emergency Evacuation Plans are a tailored document that is developed for individual building occupants with a disability who may need assistance in an emergency.

It is essential that the EPC as part of managing the Emergency Management Plan carefully consider the needs of individuals, ensure that any PEEP(S) implemented are fully accounted for and properly maintained as part of the planning and preparation process.

This would include but not be limited to occupants and visitors who—

- (a) are accompanied by an assistant;
- (b) have a guide or companion animal;
- (c) use alternative forms of information and communication;
- (d) have a vision impairment;
- (e) have a hearing impairment;
- (f) have an ambulatory impairment;
- (g) use a wheeled mobility appliance, including wheelchair or scooter;
- (h) are easily fatigued;
- (i) easily experience acute anxiety in an emergency; or
- (j) easily experience extreme confusion in an emergency.
