

This form is to be used for university travel to allow areas to manage the risk associated with long distance, remote or isolated travel. A risk assessment must be conducted for driving in situations where there is an increased risk.

This plan does not replace the need to complete Field Trip information which is required for any work, research, study or activity approved by a college/portfolio that is undertaken by staff and/or students off campus at an urban, rural, remote, freshwater or marine location. Please complete Field Trip information if you are undertaking any of these activities.

I have considered options (e.g. phone call, online meeting, email, video conference) that eliminate exposure to driving-related hazards and have determined that the trip is still necessary. Yes

It is mandatory that communication is made to the university contact person at each of the following:

- Departure from start location
- Arrival at destination
- Unscheduled stops / breakdowns
- Route deviations
- Any change in planned activities

Emergency Response / Rescue Triggers

The driver is responsible for making contact with their university contact person to advise of arrival at the destination. If a driver fails to make contact within 1 hr of the scheduled arrival time, the nominated university contact person will:

- attempt to contact the driver
- attempt to contact any passenger(s)
- attempt to contact the destination

Where no contact has been achieved and the driver has not arrived at the destination, the university contact person will continue to attempt contact for a further 30 minutes. After this time if no contact is made, then emergency response is to be initiated (see below)

Overdue or Failure to Check-in Procedure

If attempts to contact the driver are unsuccessful, the university contact person will proceed as follows:

- Check with University Security on (08) 8201 2880, available 24 hrs. a day and query whether any calls have been received.
- Call the police station at the destination and check whether police have been contacted.
- If necessary, then one of the following must be advised:
 - University Security on (08) 8201 2880
 - Emergency Control Coordinator (Head of Security)
 - College Dean/Portfolio Director
 - Associate Director, WHS Unit
 - Vice-President and Executive Dean of College /Portfolio Head.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE

Police / Ambulance / Fire - all locations – 000

If an accident has occurred, arrange for the appropriate emergency service(s) to attend.

I agree I have provided a copy of this document to the nominated university contact person and they are aware of the details relating to this Journey.
